Sub: Fisheries - Kizhur Fisheries School - Damage to building as a result of communal riots - Reported -.

There was a friction between the Communities of Muslims and Fishermen of Kalnad village of Kasaragod taluk in South Kanara District. The strained feelings between these communities were in existence for some time past and petitions were submitted to the Collector of South Kanara by the fisherfolk complaining about the harassment by Muslims. The Muslims of the area are rich and influential, and the fisherfolk as usual are mostly poor and destitutes. As a result of the petitions the Tahsildar, Kasaragod and the Circle Inspector of Police, Kasaragod had enquired into the facts of the petitions in June and August, 1954. The situation of this village was reported to be watched by the Police and the revenue authorities then.

On 28-1-1955 at about 2-3. P.M. some hooligan elements of the Muslim Community armed with brickbats and other deadly weapons attacked the fishermen of Kizhur village. The Government fisheries school was also a target of their attack. The fence of the school compound, its ornamental garden, and few tiles of the building were damaged.

The Headmaster and the Petty Yard Officer of Kizhur appraised me of the situation by wire. The telegrams were received in my office at 6-15 P.M. and 9-30 P.M. respectively on 28-1-1955. I immediately contacted the District Superintendent of Police of South Kanara and explained the situation and he immediately ordered the despatch of two armed force units to the Kizhur village. Next morning I proceeded to Kasaragod with the Inspector of Fisheries, Mangalore. The situation was under control. A compromise meeting was held at the Taluk Office where both the party leaders, the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Puthur, Tahsildar, Kasaragod, some of the leading men of Kasaragod and Sri Narayanan Nambiar, M.L.A., were present. Both the communities have agreed to a compromise. At present there is no trouble.

I have asked the Headmaster to ascertain the value of properties ruined in the riots.
